SPEAK AT UM JULY 22

MISSOULA---

Dr. Stephen Hess, professor in the John Fitzgerald Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, will present a speech July 22 at the University of Montana.

The lecture, open to the public without charge, will begin at 8 p.m. in Room 11 of the UM Liberal Arts Building.

The speech, entitled "Some Observations on the Presidential Nominative Process on the Eve of the National Conventions," will highlight Dr. Hess's two day visit with UM political science students and professors July 22-23.

Dr. Hess, a former presidential staff assistant, will have informal sessions with political science classes during his stay.

Dr. Hess has been an instructor of political science at John Hopkins University and a research analyst for Baltimore's Committee on Mass Transportation. He was an assistant to the Minority Whip, Sen. Thomas Kuchel, in 1961.

He aided in the 1956 Congressional campaign, and has done extensive free lance writing.

Dr. Hess has been the co-author of several works, including "Hats in the Ring: The Making of Presidential Candidates," "The Republican Establishment," and the forthcoming book, "Nixon: A Political Portrait."

He is the author of "America's Political Dynasties: From Adams to Kennedy."

Dr. Hess's visit is part of the UM Summer Session under the direction of Dr. Walter C. Schwank.
